Part II Questions

1. Why do you want to be a Civil Servant? (150 Words, 10 Marks)
2. What are the various ways in which gender inequality is manifested in India and how far we could overcome this? (150 words, 10 Marks)
3. 3. You are a freshly joined civil servant. You come to realize that large scale mismanagement of funds is happening in your department. Contractors, senior officials and political functionaries are likely to be part of such corrupt nexus. It is hinted to you by some staff that you need to comply with their request to facilitate or at least turn a blind eye to the whole affair. Otherwise, a transfer to a remote district as a 'punishment posting' is the likely consequence. What will be your course of action in such a situation? Suggest long term measures to prevent and resolve such issues. (300 words, 30 Marks)
